Wes Furlong

is the author of

Smart Compassion, a Herald Press book to be released February 7, 2017. He speaks widely, including engagements with Eastern Mennonite University, Mennonite Church USA, and Mennonite World Conference. Previously, Wes was the lead pastor of Cape Christian Fellowship in Cape Coral, FL and served on the mayor's commission of Lancaster city to combat poverty. Currently, he serves with the Workplace Investment Board to identify and reduce poverty in Lancaster City, as well as a Church Development consultant with EVANA. He is also the founder and director of City of Refuge, a network for community transformation.

At this year's event, several Conference Related Ministries have been asked to share on the day's theme from their context.

This will be the beginning of a rotation in which each Conference Related Ministry of ACC & LMC will have the opportunity to share every three years.
