

In your context

Students can complete their studies from home, without leaving their neighborhoods, workplaces, and church communities. Each 10-week course is completely online and utilizes the highly regarded Canvas learning management system.

On your schedule

10-week courses are offered every fall, winter, and spring to provide flexibility for your schedule. Study every semester to complete a full academic track or choose one course that will help you grow in a specific area of ministry. Make this program work for you.

For your personal development

As a student, you can pursue further spiritual formation in your character, calling, competency, and capacity by pursuing all five academic tracks. You can also create a personalized learning journey by picking and choosing courses in the areas you want to grow.

Choose from Five Tracks

1 Congregational Care & Counseling

Congregational Gift Development

Congregational Care

Congregational Counseling

2 Spiritual & Personal Formation

Spiritual Formation

Discipling Others

Leader Self-Care

3 Bible & Theology Formation

Biblical Interpretation and Study

Bible Survey

Anabaptist History and Theology

4 Leadership & Ministry Formation

Church Administration

Leading Change

Public Ministry Skills

5 Church Multiplication

Assimilation

Church Growth

Church Multiplication

Developing character, calling, competency and capacity.

Our program is designed to accommodate students, even with the busiest schedules, who are looking for personal formation or how to become more effective in a church or parachurch ministry. Each course is a formal discipleship journey that is helpful for pastoral leaders, lay leaders, students exploring ministry, those wanting continued education credits, and those looking for spiritual formation and renewal. Churches and denominations can also use these courses to create a leadership pipeline in their churches, grow their current leaders, and invest in the development of new leaders.

Visit rosedale.edu/tim for course descriptions

About Training in Ministry

Training in Ministry (TiM) is preparing Kingdom Workers in your home context – spiritually, academically, and personally. Our accredited distance learning program is offered completely online by Rosedale Bible College. You study in your context and on your schedule, to develop your character, calling, competency, and capacity as a follower of Jesus. Each course is taught by instructors with significant ministry experience and features innovative and practical video lectures, readings, case studies, and discussions. TiM allows you to start, further, or customize your educational journey through a short-term, non-degree program that can be personalized to meet a wide range of goals.

Begin your learning journey and apply today!

About Rosedale Bible College

Training in Ministry is offered by Rosedale Bible College. First organized in 1952, RBC now has more than 7,000 alumni and continues to be committed to preparing Kingdom Workers - academically, spiritually, and personally - in an evangelical Anabaptist conviction.

Scholarships

Our courses are priced to be affordable. Many students offset tuition costs through assistance from their local church, denomination, or fundraising. Students from churches in the CMC and LMC church networks can apply for financial aid and a certificate of completion.

Accreditation

Rosedale Bible College is accredited by the Association for Biblical Higher Education; authorized by the Ohio Department of Higher Education and recognized by the United States Department of Education.

Visit
rosedale.edu/tim for more info

