

Equipping Cross-Cultural Leaders to Serve the Church in the United States

WHO IS SEED FOR?

- People who have a heart to help bridge culture and language gaps in the Church
- Those currently serving or interested in serving in leadership or lay leadership in a church with recent immigrants or refugees to North America
- English Language Learners with a working-level of English

GOALS:

1. Expand Biblical knowledge through in-depth study of the Bible
2. Foster an Anabaptist perspective on scripture and leadership principles
3. Build confidence in basic church leadership and administration skills
4. Process various challenges faced by immigrant groups
5. Provide tools to support cross-cultural ministry within the United States.
